Stand with your feet hip-width apart
Take your arms out to the side at shoulder height so that they are parallel to the floor
Now start with small up and down movements
Perform these movements quickly and maintain tension right down to the fingertips