I have been a professional actor since 2002 and continue to work with some amazing people and in some amazing shows. Each experience enriches my skill as an actor and my love for acting. As long as a good story is being told with passion and commitment then it doesn't matter if we're unloading the van ourselves or we have an international crew with ten trucks. "The play's the thing." I studied music before acting which helps me get a deep understand of the 'melody' and 'rhythm' of a story and character.
