

MOCA (Museum of Contemporary Art)

The South Florida Cultural Consortium is the largest government sponsored grant program in the United States. "It identifies, supports and celebrates regional artists. This program was made possible with the generous support of the North Miami Mayor and Council and the City of North Miami, the State of Florida, Department of State, Division of Cultural Affairs and the Florida Council on Arts and Culture, and the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs and the Cultural Affairs Council, the Miami-Dade County Mayor and Board of County Commissioners." <mocanomi.org>

"The South Florida Consortium is also funded in part with support from The National Endowment of the Arts, The Florida Department of State, Division of Cultural Affairs and the Florida Arts Council, the Boards of County Commissioners of Broward, Miami-Dade, Martin and Monroe Counties, and the Palm Beach County Cultural Council." <mocanomi.org>

MOCA began in 1981. In 1996 it moved into a new building after establishing a permanent collection in 1995. "MOCA's hands-on art projects are designed to improve social, cognitive and motor skills," and partners with the Miami-Dade County schools.
